Food4Music 2006 2nd Annual Christmas Concert, Benefiting
The Food Bank of Eastern Michigan

FLINT, MI – Food4Music 2006 – This holiday season Vancouver-based Entertainment Company Food4Music Events is returning to Flint, MI to host the 2nd Annual food and money drive to benefit the Food Bank of Eastern Michigan. On Friday, December 22nd, Food4Music will be featuring a Metal Showcase at The Machine Shop. Doors will open at 7:00PM. The Machine Shop is located on South Dort Highway just before Atherton Rd. The concert will showcase some of Flint's finest, most hardcore local metal/hard rock acts including: Girl Scout Hand Grenade, Burning Cities, 2nd System, Ares Letum and With A Kiss.

To be supportive of this great cause all that fans have to do is purchase a ticket at the door for only $7or $5 with a non-perishable food item. All net proceeds and food items will be donated to the Food Bank of Eastern Michigan. Fans have a chance of winning prizes by simply bringing a food donation.

Place: The Machine Shop

Date: December 22, 2006

Time: 7:00PM

Food4Music's very first appearance was an all-ages show took place in October of 2002. Thus far, over $5,700 in cash proceeds plus more than 480 pounds of food have been donated to local food banks, all the while showcasing some of the city's finest performers.

Last year Food4Music raised over $1,200 for the Food Bank of Eastern Michigan, this equates to nearly 19,000 pounds of food for those in need with the Food Bank's amazing leveraging ability. Many more shows are planned for the near future. There are solid plans in place with Food4Music determined to reach those less fortunate and make huge impacts on the many diverse communities across Canada and the United States.

The Food Bank of Eastern Michigan distributes food to the hungry in 22 counties of Michigan through more than 380 partner agencies. Last year, the Food Bank distributed over 15.4 million pounds of food to those in need and expects to top 16 million in 2006.
